Bordeaux

Left Bank

The Left Bank of Bordeaux is defined as the land around the city of Bordeaux that is south or west of the river Gironne, as well as south or west of its tributary, the Garonne. Although the Left Bank is not necessarily a better place to find wine than the competing Right Bank, the classification system is more logical and organized. More, if not necessarily better, famed wine villages exist, and the region has a longer and more established history.

Right Bank

The Right Bank is the area to the north of the Dordogne in Bordeaux. While not nearly as famous or versatile as the Left Bank, the Right Bank is important for two essential appellations that lie within it: St-Émilion and Pomerol. The prominently Merlot-based Right Bank wines can, at the top levels, match or, by some opinions, exceed, Left Bank reds in both quality and price.
